

Sep 15, 2020 At this moment it's 2.47 (22th) position in the list of most trusted websites. Mig 29 Mig-29 MiG 29 Mig 29 MiG 29 MiG 29 for DCS World MiG 29: Top aircraft of all times (apart from F-14, F-16 and F-18).

Jun 17, 2019 There is no confirmation yet from DCS World team, but look at this screenshot: Why an answer? Because it takes about 17+ years for answers to appear in forums. Kirill Kalafutov So as I can see from the top (17) there is a bug, as I wrote in the comment - it's has no RF system. Everything else is correct and common for this airplane. Awhile ago there was a solution for this issue in exchange, but it has been removed since. Here is . Yes, it is possible to make a fix (replace F19 algorithm), but it is a very big amount of work. And I think that for this, for example, 1,5 years should go, until it is done and it can be released. By the way, it is not a bug. In the air battle is impossible to use the RF, but in the dogfight you can. Support about this issue: Why RF system is not working on MIg 29 A: I don't think it is a bug. It's official - when RF proximity sensor is not working correctly - it actually really doesn't matter, because you can't use RF at all, but only in dogfight mode. There is a system for this - AIM-9 (hit-boxes) and target lock. Click on the picture to see better. In the future, first we need a try to replace the RF sensor with a working one, and only after that we can close this bug. Your daddy is my mama and I am her son Tag: mommy Since all I was given is just a glimpse of what My Loving Mother looks like in this picture, I do my best to keep her memory alive with each painting in this series. If you want to see more be sure to stay tuned! I've spent the past six years missing the people in my life that may not understand why I choose to take on the adult world. I take pride in doing
